SUMMARY

I'm a final-year B.Tech Mechanical Engineering Student and I'm interested in software development, especially Full-Stack development with Python. I have a decent grasp of Python, Data Structures, and OOP, as well as related SQL, HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, and web development. Currently, I'm enrolled in the Full Stack Python and Data Science course in Rajahmundry, which allows me to learn more about Django, Pandas, and NumPy, and work on projects. I have an active account on LeetCode and HackerRank. I am available for part-time or internship opportunities in the afternoon to apply and improve my technical skills in real-world projects.
